

I. To the Candidate

Once you have completed this award application, please forward it and a current CV to your mentor professor for finalization and emailing to CALICO. Fill out the personal information and respond to the five questions with a maximum of 200 words for EACH question.

Name:

University & name of degree program:

(Tentative) Title of dissertation:

Organization memberships (include dates):

1. Provide a description of your primary research in CALL with a short justification regarding its future significance to teaching and learning.

2. Describe your CALL research undertaken: projects (e.g. CALL development, pedagogical modules, innovations...) completed and/or currently in progress perhaps as preparation for your dissertation or with another researcher.

3. Describe your experience in language teaching using CALL.

4. Describe up to three subjects on which you have written articles for peer reviewed journals (sole or contributing author).

5. Describe your involvement with CALICO and your anticipated participation in its future.

II To the mentor professor

A. Please answer the following questions regarding the graduate student candidate.

1. Is the candidate in good academic standing?
2. Has the candidate begun dissertation research/data collection?
3. Is the candidate's dissertation primarily focused on CALL?

B. Please provide a letter of recommendation focusing on the elements in section I of the application and speak to why this graduate student is deserving of the CALICO Outstanding Graduate Student Award.

Please email this application cover sheet along with the candidate's responses, his/her CV, and your responses and letter to Esther Horn at info@calico.org. Thank you very much for your participation in this process.